

SPECIALMEETING

March 26, 1976

Special meeting of the Lincoln County FairBoard came to order, with President John Wagner presiding.

John Wagner reported on the State allocated monies to the Lincoln County Fair Board. He also reported on the meeting with Al Upton to get a basic idea of what to ask for in the Bid ofr the roof of the Cattle Building. (Materials needed and approximate cost of said repairs. A motion was made by Elmer Mann and seconded by John Deife to get a Call for Bid to the Lincoln County Commissioners. Motion Passed.

Fred Springer asked for Premium monies in the amount of $1200.00 (twelve Hundred) for the Spring Preview. Motion was made by Bob O'Neil and seconded by Marvin Groh, motion passed. The Secretary was so instructed to get money transferred to revolving account for such payment of Premiums on Preview.

Fred Springer informed the Board that the Scale Inspector said he would not pass the scale again unless it is enclosed. Fred is to look into the repair of said scale and report at a future time.

Discussion of the steer of Merit was decided to leave for the Cattleman Assoc. to pay premium monies.

R. M. Plotts moved that the board pay the same premium as the cattlemen have been in the past for the Herdsmanship Awards. The motion was seconded by Fred Springer and motion passed.

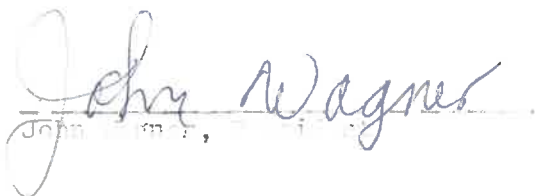

It was suggested that a notice be put in the Premium Book that horses are not allowed in the midway area. A forfeiture of premium monies may result if warnings do not prevail. Elmer Mann so moved and Donita Linstrum seconded, motion passed.

It was suggested that rabbits need to be restricted to four per exhibitor because of space available, and as many carry-on's as wish for the Fitting and Showing on Saturday. The motion was made by Fred Springer and seconded by Bob O'Neil, motion passed.

The Secretary was instructed to get a dance bank for the July Dance of the Fair Queen and her court. The tickets are to be $2.00 a single and 3.00 a couple.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned by President John Wagner.

Donna Johnston, Secretary

John Wagner, President